ABOUT PEACEWISE

PeaceWise is a biblical peacemaking movement seeking to change the fabric of relationships across our nation and beyond, one relationship at a time! We are a national, cross-denominational not for profit ministry established in 2007.

We are all people who have seen first hand what happens when conflict escalates and results in broken relationships or even legal action. We have also seen the amazing positive changes in lives and relationships that can occur when people allow God to work in their hearts in how they deal with conflict. We have seen serious issues addressed, confessions that were never thought possible, expressions of love and forgiveness that seemed beyond hope, and relationships restored that seemed broken beyond repair.

PEACEWISE TRAINER PROFILES

Bronwynne Greenway - Bronwynne has been involved with PeaceWise since 2010 working as a coach, mediator and trainer. She has a passion for helping people reconcile with God and each other, whether in marriages, families, schools, ministries or business. Bronwynne is a trained counsellor, and also works in lay ministry and has experienced the pain of conflict handled poorly. She loves to train organisations in Biblical principles that deepen an individual's understanding of conflict, and give them a structure and confidence to step towards challenges, being reminded of how God loves us in our mess as He seeks to restore us.

Ashley Saunders - Ashley has seen the destructive side of conflict - as Solicitor and Pastor; and has also seen conflict redeemed to God's glory. Now Australian CEO of Christian aid and advocacy ministry, Barnabas Fund, he has acted as a mediator and trainer for PeaceWise since 2010 and deeply believes in the power of biblical peacemaking. Ashley was admitted as a Solicitor in NSW in 1983 and prior to becoming a pastor, he also served as a lecturer in aspects of Contract and Industrial Law, and as an alderman.

Peter Davies - Peter has served in Baptist churches in the area of Pastoral ministry for over 30 years. Pete trained as a church consultant and has served in numerous churches in that capacity for 15 years. Pete served the NSW & ACT Baptist Association, for 10 years as the Associate director for Church Development. In that role, and as a church consultant, Pete became involved in many situations of church conflict. He saw first hand the devastating effect that conflict has on the health of congregations. This created a great desire in Pete to find conflict transformation processes that had the ability to help bring positive change to congregations experiencing conflict situations.

Personal Peacemaking

The purpose of personal peacemaking training is to equip you with the practical tools and skills that will help you respond well to the challenge of conflict while deepening your understanding of yourself, God and your relationship with others.

101. Everyday Peacemaking

Tired of being buffeted by conflict around you? Wondering what God is doing when peace is absent?

In this training, you will:

- Learn a simple framework for understanding and dealing with conflict
- Gain powerful peacemaking principles and relational tools
- Understand the biblical foundations of peace and reconciliation
- Discover gracious ways to deal with difficult people
- Have time to reflect upon your personal experience of conflict and peacemaking
- Learn how you can begin supporting and building a culture of peace in your community/spheres of influence
- Discover opportunities to glorify God, serve others and grow to be like Christ, even in the midst of conflict

102. Heart of Peacemaking

An improved ability to be a peacemaker and to respond well to the challenge of conflict requires a deeper understanding of ourselves, our relationship with God and the deeper things which drive our responses to challenging situations.

In this training you will:

- Practise foundational principles and skills learned in Everyday Peacemaking
- Gain a deeper understanding of how our sense of identity and the human heart impact our responses to conflict
- Discover a powerful tool to understand the drivers of your and others' behaviours
- Become better equipped to respond well to challenging people and situations
- Engage further with principles of confession, forgiveness, grieving and acceptance
- More seriously explore the concept of a culture of peace and how you can support it in your community/spheres of influence

Conflict Coaching

The purpose of conflict coaching training is to equip you to help others resolve conflict and reconcile relationships without your direct involvement in the conflict.

201. Everyday Conflict Coaching

In this training, aimed at the kinds of everyday conflicts and conversations we have with friends, family members, colleagues and neighbours, you will:

- Learn how Personal Peacemaking principles learnt in earlier courses can be used in conflict coaching
- Discover a simple 4-part process to help someone respond to a conflict they are facing
- Consider the character elements of a good conflict coach
- Explore listening skills and the role of good questions
- Learn how to gently probe deeper to explore the role of the human heart
- See ways to use Scripture to speak to the heart
- Equip someone to have difficult conversations
- Have the opportunity to put it into practice!

"SO REFRESHING TO BE IN THE COMPANY OF FACILITATORS WHO ARE PASSIONATE, DEMONSTRATING DEEP FAITH AND COMMUNICATING WITH HEAD AND HEART." - JULIANNA
