ABOUT PEACEWISE

PeaceWise is a biblical peacemaking movement seeking to change the fabric of relationships across our nation and beyond, one relationship at a time! We are a national, cross-denominational not for profit ministry established in 2007.

We are all people who have seen first hand what happens when conflict escalates and results in broken relationships or even legal action. We have also seen the amazing positive changes in lives and relationships that can occur when people allow God to work in their hearts in how they deal with conflict. We have seen serious issues addressed, confessions that were never thought possible, expressions of love and forgiveness that seemed beyond hope, and relationships restored that seemed broken beyond repair.

Prerequisites

Everyday Peacemaking: None

Heart of Peacemaking: Everyday Peacemaking or *Personal Peacemaking

Everyday Conflict Coaching: Everyday Peacemaking or *Personal Peacemaking

* = a former course no longer run by PeaceWise since the dual "everyday" and "going deeper" streams were introduced.

PEACEWISE TRAINER PROFILES

Heather Clark - Heather is a registered Psychologist and has worked for Brisbane Catholic Education as a Guidance Counsellor for over 20 years. She currently works across two high schools on the Gold Coast. Heather is originally from the USA, where she trained as a School Psychologist and worked in the inner-city schools before moving to Australia. Heather is married to Mitchell and they have two teenage daughters. Heather is a member of Newlife Church at Robina and has served in various capacities there over the years.

Bronwynne Greenway - Bronwynne has been involved with PeaceWise since 2010 and has a passion for helping people reconcile with each other and God. Both in her personal, ministry and business environments she has experienced the pain of conflict handled poorly. Over the years she has trained for PeaceWise across Australia as well as conflict coached and mediated many people in personal conflicts, marriages and families. Working with conflict led her to go back to uni for further training, and she continues to work in ministry teaching the Bible and working with individuals. Bronwynne has been married to Stuart for 32 years and they have a growing family with their three adult children.

Ashley Saunders - Ashley has seen the destructive side of conflict – as Solicitor and Pastor; and has also seen conflict redeemed to God's glory. Now CEO of Barnabas Fund, he has acted as a mediator and trainer for PeaceWise since 2010 and deeply believes in the power of biblical peacemaking. Ashley was admitted as a Solicitor in NSW in 1983 and prior to becoming a pastor, he also served as a lecturer in aspects of Contract and Industrial Law, and as an alderman.

Personal Peacemaking

The purpose of personal peacemaking training is to equip you with the practical tools and skills that will help you respond well to the challenge of conflict while deepening your understanding of yourself, God and your relationship with others.

101. Everyday Peacemaking

Tired of being buffeted by conflict around you? Wondering what God is doing when peace is absent?

In this training, you will:

- Learn a simple framework for understanding and dealing with conflict
- Gain powerful peacemaking principles and relational tools
- Understand the biblical foundations of peace and reconciliation
- Discover gracious ways to deal with difficult people
- Have time to reflect upon your personal experience of conflict and peacemaking
- Learn how you can begin supporting and building a culture of peace in your community/spheres of influence
- Discover opportunities to glorify God, serve others and grow to be like Christ, even in the midst of conflict

102. Heart of Peacemaking

An improved ability to be a peacemaker and to respond well to the challenge of conflict requires a deeper understanding of ourselves, our relationship with God and the deeper things which drive our responses to challenging situations.

In this training you will:

- Practise foundational principles and skills learned in Everyday Peacemaking
- Gain a deeper understanding of how our sense of identity and the human heart impact our responses to conflict
- Discover a powerful tool to understand the drivers of your and others' behaviours
- Become better equipped to respond well to challenging people and situations
- Engage further with principles of confession, forgiveness, grieving and acceptance
- More seriously explore the concept of a culture of peace and how you can support it in your community/spheres of influence

Conflict Coaching

The purpose of conflict coaching training is to equip you to help others resolve conflict and reconcile relationships without your direct involvement in the conflict.

201. Everyday Conflict Coaching

In this training, aimed at the kinds of everyday conflicts and conversations we have with friends, family members, colleagues and neighbours, you will:

- Learn how Personal Peacemaking principles learnt in earlier courses can be used in conflict coaching
- Discover a simple 4-part process to help someone respond to a conflict they are facing
- Consider the character elements of a good conflict coach
- Explore listening skills and the role of good questions
- Learn how to gently probe deeper to explore the role of the human heart
- See ways to use Scripture to speak to the heart
- Equip someone to have difficult conversations
- Have the opportunity to put it into practice!

"SO REFRESHING TO BE IN THE COMPANY OF FACILITATORS WHO ARE PASSIONATE, DEMONSTRATING DEEP FAITH AND COMMUNICATING WITH HEAD AND HEART." - JULIANNA
