ABOUT PEACEWISE

PeaceWise is a biblical peacemaking movement seeking to change the fabric of relationships across our nation and beyond, one relationship at a time! We are a national, cross-denominational not for profit ministry established in 2007.

We are all people who have seen first hand what happens when conflict escalates and results in broken relationships or even legal action. We have also seen the amazing positive changes in lives and relationships that can occur when people allow God to work in their hearts in how they deal with conflict. We have seen serious issues addressed, confessions that were never thought possible, expressions of love and forgiveness that seemed beyond hope, and relationships restored that seemed broken beyond repair.

Prerequisites

Everyday Peacemaking: None

Heart of Peacemaking: Everyday Peacemaking or *Personal Peacemaking

Everyday Conflict Coaching: Everyday Peacemaking or *Personal Peacemaking

PEACEWISE TRAINER PROFILES

Wayne Forward - Wayne serves with PeaceWise as the National Relationships Manager (commencing Feb 2021) and sits as a board director for PeaceWise. He has diverse work background across Mental Health Nursing and Christian Ministry in which he has worked in a variety of leadership and training roles. He has formal studies in Nursing, Theology and Leadership Coaching. Alongside his work with PeaceWise, Wayne also serves with Pioneers of Australia. Wayne has seen first hand the devastation that interpersonal conflict can cause in relationships, ministries and organisations. He has a heart to equip the people of God to live out the message of reconciliation that has been entrusted to us as testimony of the power of the gospel.

Clarissa Wilson - Clarissa is a PeaceWise trainer and mediator. She is trained as a marriage and loss and grief counsellor and has a degree in Theology. Clarissa has worked as a pastoral worker in a church for 10 years and has conducted training in biblical peacemaking for Anglican clergy and churches in Victoria. Currently she is volunteering in the area of pastoral care and with God's help seeks to live out these peacemaking principles in her own life and to enable others to honour God through their conflicts.

Personal Peacemaking

The purpose of personal peacemaking training is to equip you with the practical tools and skills that will help you respond well to the challenge of conflict while deepening your understanding of yourself, God and your relationship with others.

101. Everyday Peacemaking

Tired of being buffeted by conflict around you? Wondering what God is doing when peace is absent?

In this training, you will:

- Learn a simple framework for understanding and dealing with conflict
- Gain powerful peacemaking principles and relational tools
- Understand the biblical foundations of peace and reconciliation
- Discover gracious ways to deal with difficult people
- Have time to reflect upon your personal experience of conflict and peacemaking
- Learn how you can begin supporting and building a culture of peace in your community/spheres of influence
- Discover opportunities to glorify God, serve others and grow to be like Christ, even in the midst of conflict

102. Heart of Peacemaking

An improved ability to be a peacemaker and to respond well to the challenge of conflict requires a deeper understanding of ourselves, our relationship with God and the deeper things which drive our responses to challenging situations.

In this training you will:

- Practise foundational principles and skills learned in Everyday Peacemaking
- Gain a deeper understanding of how our sense of identity and the human heart impact our responses to conflict
- Discover a powerful tool to understand the drivers of your and others' behaviours
- Become better equipped to respond well to challenging people and situations
- Engage further with principles of confession, forgiveness, grieving and acceptance
- More seriously explore the concept of a culture of peace and how you can support it in your community/spheres of influence

Conflict Coaching

The purpose of conflict coaching training is to equip you to help others resolve conflict and reconcile relationships without your direct involvement in the conflict.

201. Everyday Conflict Coaching

In this training, aimed at the kinds of everyday conflicts and conversations we have with friends, family members, colleagues and neighbours, you will:

- Learn how Personal Peacemaking principles learnt in earlier courses can be used in conflict coaching
- Discover a simple 4-part process to help someone respond to a conflict they are facing
- Consider the character elements of a good conflict coach
- Explore listening skills and the role of good questions
- Learn how to gently probe deeper to explore the role of the human heart
- See ways to use Scripture to speak to the heart
- Equip someone to have difficult conversations
- Have the opportunity to put it into practice!

202. Deeper into Conflict Coaching

In this training, aimed at gaining a deeper understanding and having more opportunity to practise conflict coaching at a deeper level, you will:

- Go deeper into the various skills and principles learned in Everyday Conflict Coaching
- Be more deeply equipped to help someone have difficult conversations
- This includes preparing them to actually talk to the person with whom they are in conflict in an honest, respectful, humble but courageous way
- Have opportunity to use yourself as a case-study to apply the principles to a real-life situation
- Have a major conflict coaching opportunity to use the simple 4-part process (called the Circle of Hope) to help someone respond to a real conflict they are facing
